CONDITIONS OF SALE.

---

1. The highest Bidder to be the Purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the lot in dispute shall immediately be put up again and re-sold.

2. No Person to advance less than 1s.; above two pounds, 2s. 6d.; and so in proportion to three pounds, when 5s. will be deemed an advance.

3. In the case of lots upon which there may be a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

4. No lot or lots shall be removed from the premises on which the sale is held until paid for; nor shall any person be allowed to retract his bidding.

5. The Purchaser to give in name and address, and the full purchase money for each lot shall be paid at the fall of the hammer (if required), in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

6. Each and every lot shall, immediately at the fall of the hammer, be considered as delivered, and be and remain in every respect at the absolute risk of the respective Purchaser or Purchasers. The lots to be taken away at the Purchaser's expense and risk after each day's sale, in default of which the Auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible in any way if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed; but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser or Purchasers. All damage done to the premises, or to any lots, by the removal of any of the goods, shall be made good by the Purchaser thereof, Principals being considered responsible for the acts of their servants.

7. The lots are sold with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description, the Auctioneers not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in, any lot; and making no warranty whatever. The Auctioneers reserve the right of refusing any bidding, or of withdrawing any lot or lots from the sale.

8. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and extra trouble in collecting, no lot to be removed during the time of sale, except by a special delivery order, and all accounts must be settled on the premises during or at the close of the sale; and no cheque will be accepted as payment without satisfactory reference.

9. No undertaking of the Auctioneers or their servants to take charge of any lot or lots shall be held to impose upon the Auctioneers any legal obligation, or vitiate any of the foregoing Conditions.

10. All lots must be cleared by the day following the sale at the latest, and those uncleared by that time shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, together with warehousing and other charges, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

11. Should any question arise not provided for in the foregoing Conditions, the decision of the Auctioneers shall be final, from which there shall be no appeal.
